

November 2022
joyranch.org

Alex

Ava

Cheyenne

Favorite Thanksgiving food: Stuffing!

Favorite Thanksgiving food: Mom's cheese balls

What are the most important lessons you've learned in life?

Favorite Thanksgiving smell: Stuffing!

Who has been kindest to you? Ms. Erin & Mimi

1) That it's okay to let people in. 2) God really does care about you.

Chloe

Evvy

Happy

Thanksgiving!

What is your favorite Thanksgiving memory? Going to my aunt's mom's house. There were a bunch of different things going on and it was fun.

What are you most thankful for this year? Lily moving in with us.

Thank you for supporting this ministry! We thought you might like to get to know these kids better and learn what they think of Thanksgiving. Enjoy!

What is your favorite Thanksgiving smell? Pumpkin spice

Joy Ranch

A Christian Home for Children

Ellie

What are you proudest of?
That I went out for softball this year because that was new for me and hard.

What is your #1 favorite thing about Thanksgiving?
Helping make all the food.

Isaiah

Favorite Thanksgiving
dessert: Peanut Butter
Pie

#1 Favorite Thing About Thanksgiving:
Watching Football

John

Favorite Thanksgiving
food: Mac & cheese

Who would you invite to Thanksgiving dinner?
My cousins

Julia

Favorite Thanksgiving
family tradition:
Going to the movies that night

Favorite Thanksgiving
smell: Pumpkin spice

Lily

Who made a positive impact on your life
recently?
Mrs. Michelle

Most thankful for this year: Dogs

Sarah

How do you want to be remembered?
As someone who made an impact

Favorite Thanksgiving
dessert: Peanut butter
balls

& give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. ~ Psalm 107:1